We deliver exceptional projects, turning your vision into reality with expert craftsmanship, seamless project management, and a commitment to excellence at every step.

27+ Years of Experience

We recently had a loft conversion completed by Martin Owen Construction and the results are outstanding. From the first meeting, they listened carefully to our ideas and came back with a design that made the most of the available space. The work was carried out with real care and attention to detail, and the team were always respectful of our home. We now have a beautiful, bright new bedroom and office space that feels like it's always been part of the house. Highly recommended for anyone considering a loft conversion.

Martin Owen were recommend to us by a close friend who used them to do extensive conversion and extension work last year. After seeing the work they had done we contacted them to discuss a large loft conversion. The work they carried out was really good and exactly what we had hoped for giving us two additional double bedrooms with en-suites. We were extremely happy with the job they completed and would not hesitate to recommend them to others.
